Further Section

Cerebrovasc Dis 1992;2:1

J.	Julien	Bogousslavsky ^a
M.	Michael	Hennerici ^b

^a Lausanne, ^b Mannheim

Editorial

As editors of Cerebrovascular Diseases, we would like to take the opportunity to thank the experts who are leaving our Advisory Board in 1992 A. Bes,

D.G. Piegras, H. Lechner, M. Kaste and R. Nyberg-Hansen. The review process is a dynamic one, and regular changes of board members is crucial for maintaining peer review at the highest possible standard. As a consequence, new members will join the boards, and we would like to welcome

Jean-Louis Mas, Paris, France, and Louis R. Caplan, Boston, MassfeUSA, to the Editorial Board. P. Dalai, Bombay, India, D.I. Graham, Glasgow, UK, F. Aichner, Innsbruck, Austria, K. Asplund, Umea, Sweden, W.-D. Heiss, Cologne, FRG, J.-M. Orgogozo, Bordeaux, France, H. Mattle, Berne, Switzerland, J.L. Marti-Vilalta, Barcelona, Spain,

J.-C. Baron, Caen, France, C. Helgason, Chicago, 111., USA,

GJ. Del Zoppo, San Diego, Calif.,

USA,

H. Adams, Iowa City, Iowa, USA,

J.P. Mohr, New York City, N.Y.,

USA,

S.R. Levine, Detroit, Mich., USA,

M. Hommel, Grenoble, France, and

R. Cote, Montreal, Canada, are now joining the Advisory Board.

Last but not least, we are particularly happy to announce that

J. Don Easton, Providence, R.I.,

USA, will serve as Associate Editor. We are confident that his expertise will contribute to improve the quality of the journal and the interatlantic exchanges.

In 1992, we would like to encourage the submission of short presentations of data or interesting case reports as Letters to the Editors. The readers are also welcome to ask for a review of a particular book dealing with stroke or cerebrovascular diseases.