Downregulation of HK II Sensitizes Cancer Cells to 5-FU

24 Pedersen PL: Warburg, me and hexokinase 2: multiple discoveries of key molecular events underlying one of cancers’ most common phenotypes, the ‘Warburg effect’, i.e., elevated glycolysis in the presence of oxygen. J Bioenerg Biomembr 2007;39:211–222.

Erratum

In the article by Tada et al. entitled ‘Efficacy of Gemcitabine for Locally Advanced Pancreatic Cancer: Comparison with 5-Fluorouracil-Based Chemoradiotherapy’ [Chemotherapy 2008;54:302–308] the name Toshihiko Arizumi is erroneously listed as Masatoshi Arizumi.