Reply

J.-C.		Givel
F.-A.		Wassmer
S.		Caplin

Service de Chirurgie, Centre Hospitalier Universitaire Vaudois, Lausanne, Suisse

Prof. J.-C. Givel, BH10, Centre Hospitalier Universitaire Vaudois, CH-1011 Lausanne (Switzerland)

As mentioned in our paper, low anterior resection with coloanal anastomosis has numerous indications, potentially all situations which require distal rectal resection.

The technique is not adequate for very low rectal tumors or those involving the anal canal. In these conditions we think abdomi-noperineal excision with permanent end co-lostomy remains mandatory.

KAHGER

E-Mail karger@karger.ch Fax + 41 61 306 12 34 <http://www.karger.ch>

© 1997 S. KargerAG, Basel 0253-4886/97/0144-0327$12.00/0

This article is also accessible online at: <http://BioMedNet.com/karger>
327