Further Section

Digestion 1972;6:127-128

News

June 25-29, 1972 14th Czechoslovak Congress of Gastroenterology with International Participation in Prague
Organizing committee President: B. Niederle General Secretary: P. Fríc
Preliminary scientific programme
Transplantation in gastroenterology
Changes of the gastrointestinal system as sequelae of other disease-states
Primary malabsorption syndrome
Pathology of the duodenum, biliary system and the pancreas
New methods in gastroenterology
Free papers
Simultaneous translation will be provided in the main lecture hall into English, French, German, Russian and Czech or Slovak.
Information: Czech Technical University Dejvice, Suchbátarova street 4, Praha 6

July 3-5, 1972 2nd European Congress of Digestive Endoscopy
in Paris President: A. Cornet

July 5-12, 1972 9th International Congress of Gastroenterology
in Paris
President: J. Caroli
General secretaries: R. Vigué and J. Toulet
These congresses will be held at the Nouvelle Faculté de Médecine, 45, rue des Saints-Pères, F-75 Paris (Vie) (France)

Programme

Symposium: Action of the vagus nerve on the stomach. Intestinal cell absorption.
Gluten-sensitive enteropathy. Digestive disturbances induced by hormone-secreting tumors.
Radiology compared with endoscopy for the diagnosis of the tumors of the digestive tract.

Immunoglobulins and the digestive tract. Intra-luminal digestion of fats in the intestine.
Relationship between gastro-duodenal hormones and stomach, pancreas and biliary tract.
Official languages: English, French, German and Spanish. Simultaneous interpretation will be available in all four languages.

Registration as a Congress member confers the following rights: Attendance at meetings, printed summaries, all receptions in the general programme, secretariat facilities, reduced rail fares and reduced rates for self drive cars.

Information: SOCFI, 7, rue Michel-Ange, F-75 Paris (XVth) (France)