Editorial Note

M.		Ermini
J.		Andrews

The editors would like to remind authors that the Journal encourages receiving letters to the Editor directly related to the contents of recently published Original Paper, Critical Reviews and Comments. We feel it is a most dangerous practice for scientific journals to have no Letters section, this can well result in questionable scientific data being recorded in the literature without any method of challenge.

176