Erratum

In the article by Schneider et al., entitled ‘Serum Concentrations of Metronidazole and Its Main Metabolite in Patients with Active Crohn’s Disease: Correlation with Disease Activity and Therapeutic Efficacy?’, published in Chemotherapy, vol. 30, no. 6 (pp. 345-352), 1984, the bars in figure 1 have been reversed. The open bar correctly shows the concentration 2 h after the last oral intake of metronidazole, the black bar 14 h after the last oral intake of metronidazole.
