Dermatopathology Symposium
New York City, October 16-19, 1980
This year’s annual symposium on dermatopathology at New York University School of Medicine is entitled ‘Histologic Diagnosis of Neoplastic Skin Diseases: A Method by Pattern Analysis’. The dates are October 16 through October 19, 1980. The emphasis of this symposium, which will be directed by A. Bernard Ackerman, MD, will be diagnosis by pattern of cutaneous neoplasms, the superiority of architectural pattern over cytologic features in the diagnosis of neoplasms, and the finding of stereotypic criteria that not only make for correct histologic diagnosis of neoplasms, but also for prediction of biologic behavior on the basis of histologic findings.
Address all inquiries to: A. Bernard Ackerman, MD,
Dermatopathology Section, 530 First Ave., New York City, NY 10016 (USA);
(Tel.) 212-340-7250.

Bill Reed International Traveling Fellowships
Three fellowships will be awarded this year as follows:
1. The winner of the Poster Session at the annual meeting of the European Society for Dermatological Research will be awarded S 800.00 to help support a trip to attend the annual meeting of the American Academy of Dermatology. The winner of the Stelwagon Prize for the best paper presented at the Resident’s Forum at the annual American Academy of Dermatology meeting will receive an $ 800.00 award to support a trip to Europe where the awardee will present a paper at the annual meeting of the British Association of Dermatologists in England. Further travel to European centers can also be arranged.
3. A third award of S 800.00 will be given to an academically oriented dermatologist in the Private Practice of Clinical Dermatology, who has been out of training no more than 5 years. Anyone interested in applying for this award should send their curriculum vitae and a covering letter indicating how they plan to spend the award funds, to the Chairman of the Committee on International Affairs of the A.A.D. at the Academy Office, 820 Davis Street, Evanston, IL 60201 (USA). The deadline for submission is September 1, 1980.
