On November 19th, 1966, The Australasian College of Dermatologists was incorporated, to supersede the Dermatological Association of Australia and the New Zealand Dermatological Society.

The Inauguration of the College will take place in Sydney, Australia, from April 30th to May 6th, 1967, with a full Scientific Programme.

The officers of the College are:
- President: Dr. J. C. Belisario
- President Elect: Dr. R. F. A. Becke
- Hon. Secretary: Dr. L. G. Abbott
- Hon. Treasurer: Dr. M. B. Lewis
- Censor-in-Chief: Dr. E. H. Taft

Tagungsleiter: Prof. Dr. N. Klüken.
Sekretär: Ralf Gerl, 43 Essen, Hufelandstrasse 55 HI.

The “Alfred Marchionini Prize” Foundation

At the end of last year, Kurt Herrmann, an industrialist, created the “Alfred Marchionini Prize” foundation, in memory of Professor A. Marchionini and of the particular services rendered by the latter within the framework of his activities in favour of cooperation between people.

Important people in the world of the International Medicine, preferably in the field of Dermatology who have distinguished themselves by works conceived in the spirit of A. Marchionini shall be rewarded by the “Alfred Marchionini Prize” gold medal.

The founder of the “Marchionini-Prize” has formed a committee for the awarding of the above-mentioned prize, a committee composed of the following internationally well-known dermatologists:
- Prof. Dr. med. A. Wiedmann, Wien, as president
- Prof. Dr. med. Dr. phil. J. Kimmig, Hamburg
- Prof. Dr. med. F. Sagher, Jerusalem
- Prof. Dr. med. W. Jadassohn, Geneve
- Prof. Dr. med. S. Longhin, Bucharest
- Prof. Dr. med. M. Monacelli, Roma
- Prof. Dr. med. O. Braun-Falco, Marburg

At their first meeting on October 21st 1966, in Bonn, the committee decided to award the “Alfred Marchionini Prize” for the first time, at the International Dermatology Congress in Munich.