Prof. Curzon: Ladies and gentlemen, may we continue with the next presentation. This paper on ‘Diet and Caries in High-Risk Groups in Developed and Developing Countries’ and will be given by Prof. Holm. The chairman of the session and the workshop is Dr. Ingolf Moller from the WHO unit in Copenhagen. It is my pleasure to call upon Dr. Moller to continue the session.

Dr. Moller: It is my pleasure to ask Prof. Holm to present her paper to open this workshop. Prof. Holm has much experience in this area and was recently involved in a number of studies on dental caries in third world countries, as well as with immigrant populations.
