Contribution to the Study of Disturbed Binocular Vision

G.H.

Jonkers

Schiedam

Summary

An attempt is made to determine whether the frequency and nature of disturbed binocular vision are altering, by means of an analysis of the diagnoses made in an ophthalmological practice. The various aspects of the phenomena of this condition are compared with that of diabetes, glaucoma, metabolic diseases, etc.

Ophthalmologica 148: 187 (1964)

Demonstration by Means of Television of a Goniotomy Using a Newly-Designed Contact Lens

By J. G. F. WORST

Groningen