Acknowledgements

We wish to thank the following for their generous support to the Workshop: La Fondation pour la Recherche medicale francaise; Lepetit, Suresnes, France; Abbott, Diagnostics Division, North Chicago, 111., USA; Organon, Oss, Holland; Becton-Dickinson (France), Grenoble, France; Pfizer, Diagnostics Division, New York, N. Y., USA.
We are very grateful to:
WANG-France (Director; Mr. Adam), which placed one of their computers (WANG 2.200 with floppy disk memory) at our disposal and to
B. Vitrant (WANG-France) who built the program and who worked so efficiently during the Workshop to obtain the I. D. results.
The Groupe de recherche en Methodologie informatique et statistique de l’Inserm (Prof. F. Gremy, Dr. Denise Salmon) and the Centre Inter Universitaire de traitement de l’information no II (Mr. Hirel) for the computer analysis of the CEP results.
Gelman (France) who generously lent important materials for immunodiffusion.
Acknowledgements are also directed to those who kindly donated sera to the participants of the Workshop; The reference Resources Branch of the NIAID; Dr. D. G. Woodfield, Blood Transfusion Service, Boroko, Papua, New Guinea; Dr. Martin Goldfield; Dr. J. L. Oudart, Institut Pasteur, Dakar, Senegal; Dr. A. M. Prince, New York Blood Center, New York, N. Y., USA; Dr. M. Simons, Singapore.
Without the technical assistance of A. Plancon, L. Halle, N. Le Marrec, F. Grillon, M.J. Beaulieu and C. Gautier from the Centre National de Transfusion Sanguine, and the help of C. Dreyer-Dufer, who have counted neither their time nor their efforts, this Workshop could not have been realized.
