Acknowledgements

Miss B. Rudolf, Mrs. J. Scheidegger, and Miss S. Thüler expertly handled the organizational details before and during the meeting. Mr. J. Spinner attended to the recording of the discussions with equal perfection, and Miss Thtiler carried the burden of typing and re-typing them within a fortnight with unfailing grace. The processing of the manuscripts was greatly facilitated by the precise and rapid management of Miss D. Greder of the Karger Publishing Company. To all the members of this efficient team, the editors wish to express their sincere gratitude.
