Comorbid Depression and Anxiety in OCD

Psychopathology 2005;38:315–319 319

Announcement

Kurt Schneider Scientific Award

This prize for exceptional scientific achievements, sponsored by Janssen-Cilag GmbH Germany, Neuss, and endowed with EUR 10,000.–, will be awarded for the 10th time at the 16th Weissenauer Schizophrenia Symposium in 2006. The aim of the prize is to encourage psychiatric research, especially in schizophrenias, including basic research (clinical psychopathology, biochemistry, neurophysiology, psychopharmacology, genetics and epidemiology), diagnostics, prevention, therapy and rehabilitation. Entry papers (usually only one original paper, already published or accepted for publication) are to be sent (9-fold, with a one-page summary) to the Board of Trustees (Peter Berner, Paris; Gisela Gross, Bonn; Gerd Huber, Bonn; Werner Janzarik, Heidelberg; Joachim Klosterkötter, Köln; Hubertus von Loepel, Krefeld; Henning Sass, Aachen; Andreas Schreiner, Neuss; Lilo Stiwwold, Frankfurt/Main) not later than January 15th, 2006, to the attention of the chairman, Prof. Dr. med. Dr. h.c. Gerd Huber, Universitäts-Nervenklinik, D–53105 Bonn-Venusberg, Germany. Fax +49 228 287 1736 or +49 228 322 883.