Kidney Diseases:
“Best Research Paper Award 2019”
This award consists of USD 1,000.00 to help the first author of the winning paper to attend an international nephrology congress outside of his/her country in 2020. All original research papers accepted in 2019 are eligible. The winner will be selected by the Editorial Board of Kidney Diseases.

www.karger.com/kdd

Selected contributions
- Klotho/FGF23 Axis in Chronic Kidney Disease and Cardiovascular Disease: Lu, X. (Nanjing); Hu, M.C. (Dallas, TX)
- Disorders of Acid-Base Balance: New Perspectives: Seifter, J.L. (Boston, MA); Chang, H.-Y. (Kaohsiung)
- The Prevalence and Management of Systemic Amyloidosis in Western Countries: Nienhuis, H.L.A.; Bijzet, J.; Hazenberg, B.P.C. (Groningen)
- Advances in Understanding and Management of Residual Renal Function in Patients with Chronic Kidney Disease: Liu, X.; Dai, C. (Nanjing)
- New Findings on the Pathogenesis of Distal Renal Tubular Acidosis: Trepiccione, F. (Naples); Prosperi, F.; de la Motte, L.R. (Naples/Ariano Irpino); Hübner, C.A. (Jena); Chambrey, R.; Eladari, D. (Saint-Denis); Capasso, G. (Naples/Ariano Irpino)
- Lupus Nephritis in Asia: Clinical Features and Management: Yap, D.Y.H.; Chan, T.M. (Hong Kong)